ANNOUNCEMENT
PURSUANT TO RULES 13.13, 13.14 and 13.15 OF THE LISTING RULES

CCT Telecom and CCT Tech announce the details of the receivable from two of their customers pursuant to Rules 13.13, 13.14 and 13.15 of the Listing Rules.

The board of directors of CCT Telecom and CCT Tech confirm that, save as disclosed in this announcement, the Previous Joint Announcements and the Previous CCT Tech Announcement, CCT Telecom and CCT Tech do not have other disclosure obligation under Rules 13.13, 13.14 and 13.15 of the Listing Rules as at the date of this announcement.

The following disclosure is made by CCT Telecom Holdings Limited ("CCT Telecom") pursuant to Rules 13.13 and 13.15 of the Listing Rules. Reference is made to the announcements dated 19 July 2005, 19 August 2005 and 16 September 2005 (together the "Previous Joint Announcements" or each of them the "Previous Joint Announcement") jointly issued by CCT Telecom and CCT Tech International Limited ("CCT Tech") and the announcement dated 7 November 2005 issued by CCT Tech (the "Previous CCT Tech Announcement"). Terms defined in the Previous Joint Announcements and the Previous CCT Tech Announcement shall have the same meanings when used herein, unless otherwise stated.

In addition to Customer A, Customer B and Customer C as previously disclosed in the Previous Joint Announcements, it was noted that the amount of trade receivable due from Customer D of the CCT Tech Group, according to the latest consolidated management accounts of CCT Tech as at 31 October 2005, has exceeded the prescribed percentage set out in Rule 13.13 of the Listing Rules for CCT Telecom. CCT Tech has already disclosed the receivable due from Customer D pursuant to Rules 13.13 and 13.15 of the Listing Rules in the Previous CCT Tech Announcement.

The amount of trade receivable due from Customer D amounted to HK$53.2 million as at 31 October 2005. Based on the closing price of the five trading days ended on 28 November 2005 (being the date prior to the date of this announcement) and the published 2005 interim accounts of CCT Telecom, the amount of trade receivable due from Customer D exceeded 8% of the consideration ratio as set out in Rule 14.07 of the Listing Rules for CCT Telecom as follows:

	CCT Telecom Percentage of
	Total assets	Market capitalisation
Customer D	1.2%	8.2%

The following disclosure is made by CCT Tech pursuant to Rule 13.14 of the Listing Rules.

According to the latest consolidated management accounts of CCT Tech as at 31 October 2005:

— accounts receivable due from Customer B amounted to HK$120.3 million. The amount of the increase in the accounts receivable due from Customer B, since the previous disclosed balance of HK$102.9 million in the Previous Joint Announcement dated 19 August 2005 exceeded the consideration ratio as set out in Rule 14.07 of the Listing Rules by more than 3% in respect of CCT Tech (but not for CCT Telecom) based on the closing share price of the five trading days ended on 28 November 2005 (being the date prior to the date of this announcement); and — accounts receivable due from Customer D amounted to HK$53.2 million. The amount of the increase in the accounts receivable due from Customer D, since the previous disclosed balance of HK$35.7 million in the Previous CCT Tech Announcement exceeded the consideration ratio as set out in Rule 14.07 of the Listing Rules by more than 3% based on the closing share price of the five trading days ended on 28 November 2005 (being the date prior to the date of this announcement).

The increase in the accounts receivable due from each of Customer B and Customer D arose as a result of increased sales to each of them by the CCT Tech Group during its peak season.

The change in the applicable percentage ratios since the previous disclosure is summarised as follows:

	CCT Tech
	As per the Previous Joint Announcement dated 19 August 2005 and the Previous CCT Tech Announcement, percentage of		As for this announcement, percentage of
	Total assets	Market capitalisation	Total assets	Market capitalisation
Customer B	4.7%	30.2%	5.3%	35.3%
Customer D	1.6%	10.7%	2.3%	15.6%

The accounts receivable from each of Customer B and Customer D is a trade receivable that arose from the sale of telecom products by the CCT Tech Group to each of them in its usual and ordinary course of business and governed by normal commercial terms agreed with each of them on an arm's length basis. The accounts receivable from each of Customer B and Customer D is interest-free and unsecured. The repayment or credit terms of the accounts receivable from each of Customer B and Customer D are short term and granted in line with CCT Tech's credit policy, as disclosed in its 2005 interim report and on normal commercial terms and on an arm's length basis.

To the best of the knowledge of the directors of CCT Tech and CCT Telecom, both Customer B and Customer D are independent third parties not connected in any way with the directors, chief executive or substantial shareholders of CCT Tech or its subsidiaries or CCT Telecom or its subsidiaries or their respective associates.

Customer B and Customer D are companies of considerable size and reputation and are owners of internationally renowned brands. They are either an international conglomerate or a major subsidiary of an international conglomerate whose business operation cover a large number of countries and whose shares are listed on the New York Stock Exchange and/or other major stock exchanges in Europe and have been awarded credit ratings by Standard & Poor's ranging from BBB+/Stable to A–/Stable. The primary scope of business of Customer B and Customer D is the sale of a variety of telecom, electronic, multi-media and consumer products worldwide. Customer B and Customer D had made payment to the CCT Tech Group in accordance with their agreed repayment terms and in a timely manner as agreed between each of Customer B and Customer D and the CCT Tech Group.

The boards of directors of CCT Tech and CCT Telecom confirm that, save as disclosed above and the Previous Joint Announcements and the Previous CCT Tech Announcement, CCT Tech and CCT Telecom do not have other disclosure obligation under Rules 13.13, 13.14 and 13.15 of the Listing Rules as at the date of this announcement.
